Why Uproar.car?

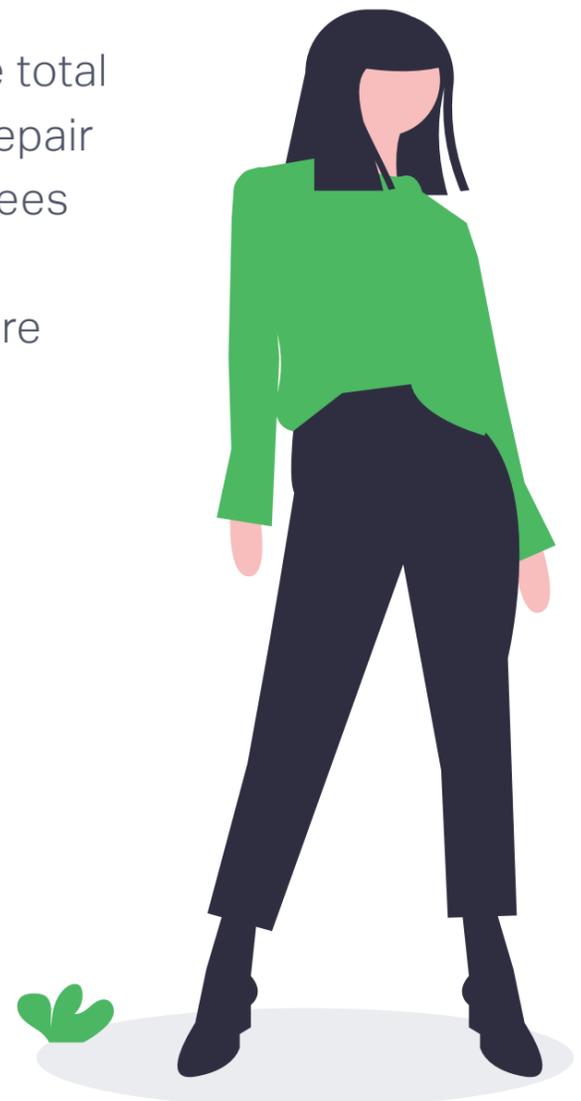

Uproar.car saves employees time and money by eliminating expensive car repair costs and coordinating repair logistics.

For most employees, car ownership is a necessity. Not only do they rely on their personal vehicle to get to work, they rely on it to get the kids to school and soccer practice, to go to doctors' appointments and for going on that summer road trip. When their cars need a big repair, employees are often left in big trouble. Unexpected car repairs can be financially disruptive and inconvenient.

That's where Uproar.car comes in.

Uproar.car is the first benefits provider offering car care to the total rewards marketplace. We offer hassle-free, low-cost vehicle repair protection as an employee benefit. Our products free employees from the worry and stress of vehicle repairs, allowing them to focus on work and family with the confidence that their car care needs are covered.

That's worry-free car care.

The real cost of car repairs.

The average car repair costs between $500 and $600¹. For many employees, this can be a serious expense, often magnified because it's unexpected. Financial stress leads to increased absenteeism and tardiness, decreased productivity, and negative effects on overall employee health.¹

Car ownership is the second-highest household expense.²

86% of Americans say repair costs are too high or outrageous.³

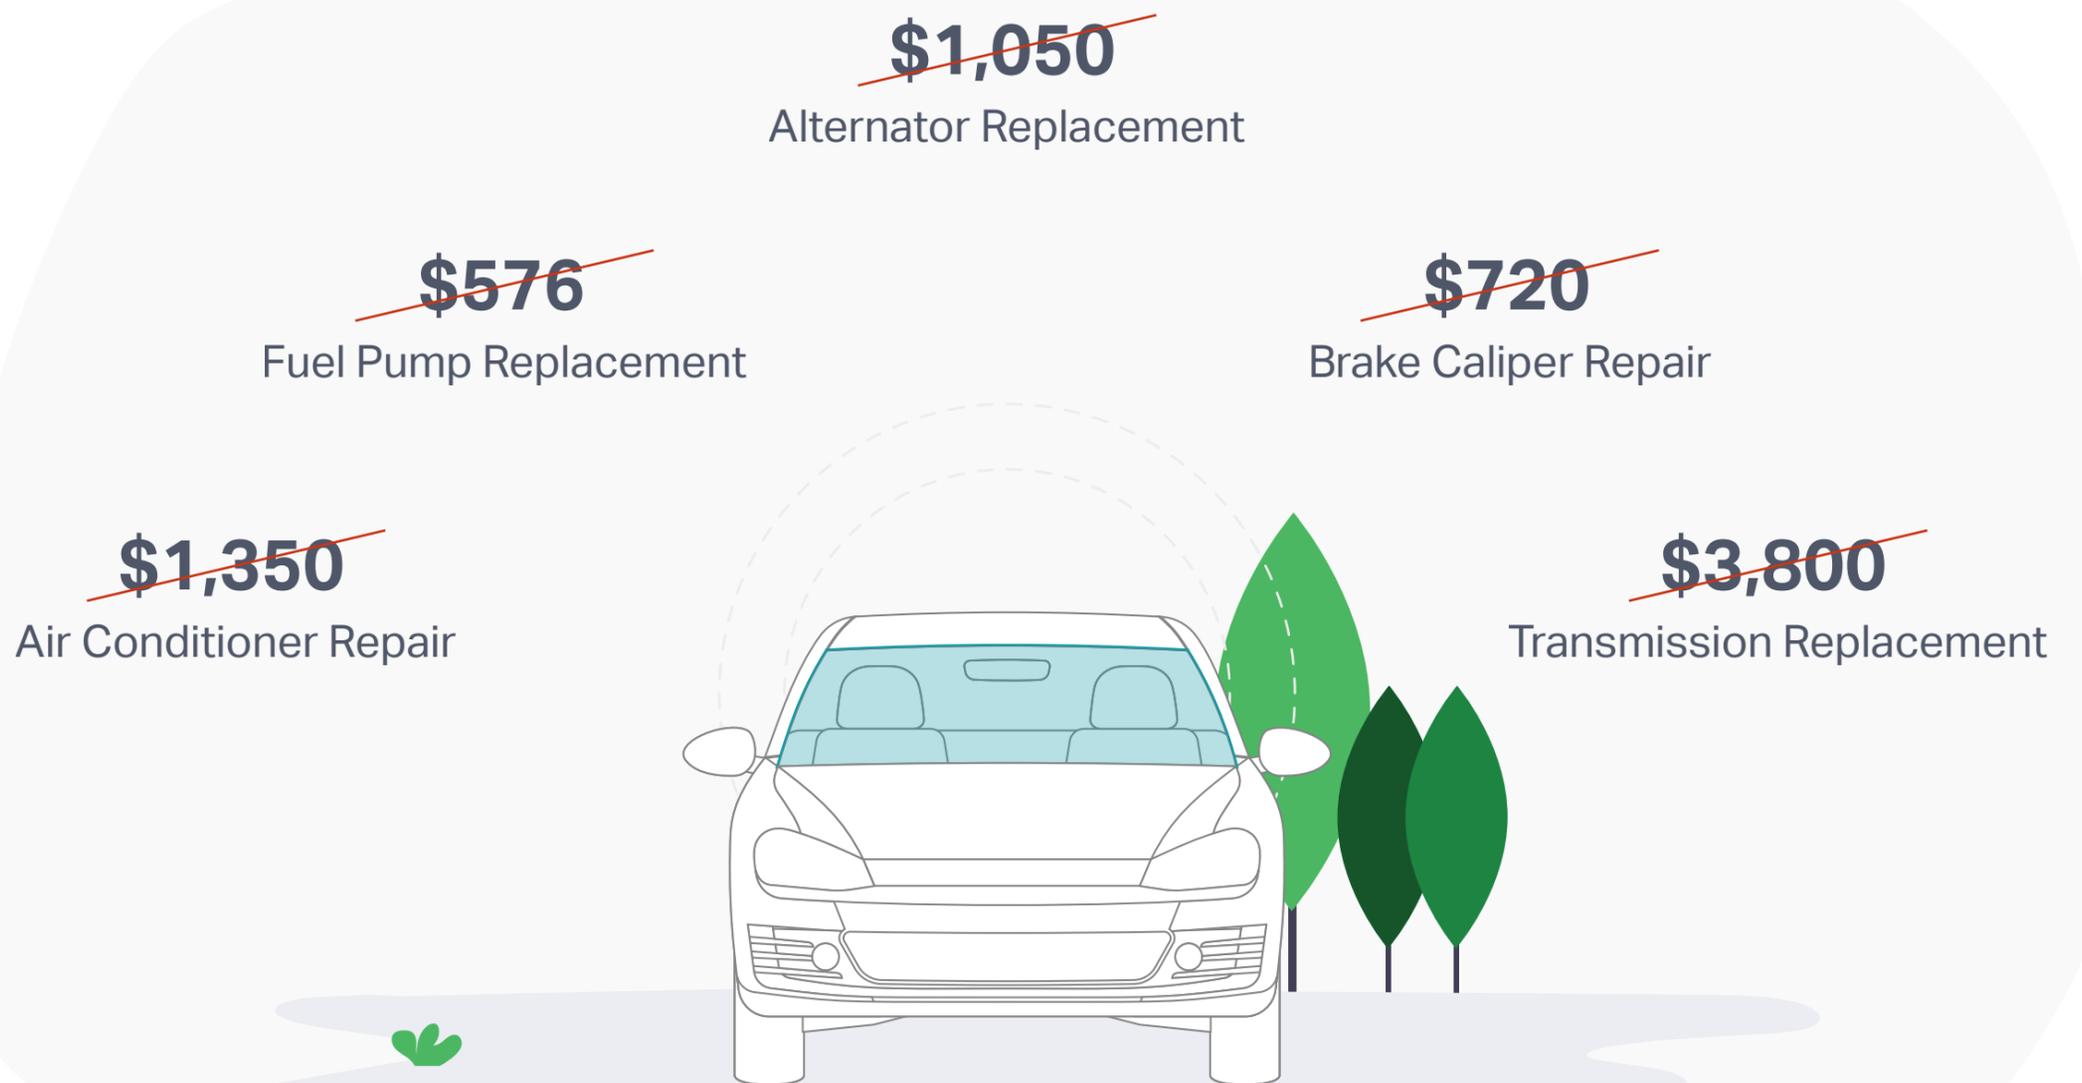

50% of workers have missed time or shown up late to work due to car troubles.⁴

Repair protection can save employees $1,000's.

Employees are covered for big and small vehicle repairs, potentially saving them $1,000's in repair costs.

Savings they can't get anywhere else.

Uproar.car offers comprehensive repair coverage at exclusively low rates. On average, our subscriptions are 1/3 the cost compared to similar products offered by competitors.
